Kenſington, November 6.

THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Bath, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable Lord Viſcount Ligonier, and the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, their Repreſentatives in Parliament: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of your Majeſty's City of Bath, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the late glorious Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in North America, by the utter Defeat of the French Army, and the taking the ſtrong Town of Quebec, the Key and Capital of the extenſive Province of Canada; and to commemorate, with equal Joy, that numerous Train of Victories and Succeſſes, in other Parts of the World, with which Providence hath been pleaſed to reward your Majeſty's unwearied Endeavours for your People's Protection, and the Preſervation of their juſt Rights, in this neceſſary War.

Such and ſo various have been the Succeſſes of your Majeſty's Arms by Sea, and Land, that Poſterity will hardly believe ſo many great Exploits could have been crowded into the ſhort Space of one ſingle Year.

The Iſle of Goree taken; Guardaloupe ſurrendred; the French Fleet off the Coaſt of Portugal, burnt, taken, or diſperſed; the glorious Victory of Prince Ferdinand at Thornhaſen; and the gallant Repulſe of the French Forces at Madraſs, Fort Duqueſne, Niagara, Ticonderoga, and Crown Point, all given up or abandoned to your Majeſty's Armies: All theſe fortunate Events, have been at laſt crowned by the important Conqueſt of Quebec; and theſe Advantages have been obtained with ſuch Circumſtances of Praiſe and Renown to your Majeſty's Fleets and Armies ſurmounting every Difficulty of Art and Nature, and bearing down all Oppoſition of ſuperior Numbers, that no Period of Hiſtory, in any Age or Nation, can furniſh a Year, ſo replete with glorious Events and heroic Atchievements.

While theſe great Actions are with Juſtice, under Providence, aſcribed to your Majeſty, by whoſe Wiſdom the Operations were planned, and by whoſe choſen Commanders they were executed, they do at the ſame Time caſt a Luſtre upon thoſe Perſons, who have the Honour to be admitted into your Councils; as well as upon thoſe brave Officers, who have ſo ably ſerved your Majeſty and their Country.

But while we are thus exulting in the General Joy, and our Hearts are overflowing with Affection and Gratitude to your Majeſty, permit us to indulge our Grief in this Scene of Triumph, by lamenting the untimely Death of that Brave, Prudent, and Excellent Commander General Wolfe; a moſt heavy Loſs to your Majeſty, and this Nation: We are, however, in ſome Sort comforted with this Reflection, that he died Fighting Valiantly for his Country, and has left behind him a noble Example of Bravery and Virtue, for the Excitement and Imitation of his Fellow-Subjects.

This Wiſdom in your Majeſty's Councils, this Conduct in your Captains, and hardy Courage in your Sea and Land Soldiers, will help, we truſt, to confound the Pride of your Majeſty's Enemies; and teach them, that neither mighty Confederacies, nor Superiority of Numbers, can avail, whenever your Majeſty ſhall be provoked to put forth the Strength of your Kingdoms: And if theſe Troublers of the World ſhould ever be raſh enough to invade this Country, as they have ſo inſolently threatened, we are perſuaded they will ſoon have Cauſe to repent the Undertaking, and feel to their Coſt the terrible Vengeance of a wiſe and powerful King, letting looſe and directing the juſt Reſentment of an undivided People.

Permit us, Gracious Sovereign, to pray that theſe Glories may continue to ſignalize your Majeſty's Reign, till the Enemy ſhall be compelled to ſue for Peace; and that your Majeſty for many Years to come may enjoy and impart to your faithful Subjects the Fruits of that Bleſſing, rendering theſe Kingdoms as happy in Peace as You have made them glorious in War.

In Teſtimony whereof we have ſet our City Seal this Third Day of November, in the Year of our Lord One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Fifty-nine.

[Price Three-Pence.]

AT the Court at Kenſington, the 23d Day of October, 1759,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majeſty's Order in Council of the 14th of April laſt, for prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coaſtwiſe, Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the 29th Day of this Inſtant October.—And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majeſty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the ſaid Prohibition ſhould be continued for ſome longer Time.—His Majeſty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, Require, Prohibit and Command, that no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever (except the Maſter General, Lieutenant General, or Principal Officers of the Ordnance for His Majeſty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the ſaid 29th Day of this Inſtant October, preſume to tranſport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coaſtwiſe, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or Ship or Lade any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Veſſel, in order to tranſporting the ſame into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the ſame Coaſtwiſe, without Leave or Permiſſion in that Behalf firſt obtained from His Majeſty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and ſuffering the reſpective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act paſſed in the Twenty-Ninth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, entituled, "An Act to impower His Majeſty "to prohibit the Exportation of Salt Petre, and to "enforce the Law for impowering His Majeſty to "prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any "Sort of Arms or Ammunition, and alſo to empower "His Majeſty to reſtrain the carrying Coaſtwiſe of "Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or "Ammunition." And the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great-Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Maſter General of the Ordnance, and His Majeſty's Secretary at War, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein, as to them may reſpectively appertain.

W. Blair.

Camp at Corſdorf, October 17.

The King of Great Britain having conſtituted the Right Honourable the Marquis of Granby, and Stephen Martin Leake, Eſq; Garter Principal King of Arms, Plenepotentiaries for inveſting his Serene Highneſs Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick, with the moſt Noble Order of the Garter, Mr. Leake arrived at the Camp, with the Habit and Enſigns, on Monday the 15th. The next Day the Plenipotentiaries had their firſt Audience of his Serene Highneſs, at the Head Quarters, and preſented their Credentials and the Book of Statutes, and his Serene Highneſs having agreed to accept the Election with the uſual Reſervations, the Plenipotentiaries immediately inveſted him with the Garter, Ribband, and George, Garter pronouncing the uſual Admonitions in Latin. The next Day was appointed for the publick Inveſtiture, and, for that Purpoſe, a large Tent was prepared on a Hill, in full View of the French Camp, and another leſſer Tent at a little Diſtance from the Great one, for his Highneſs to receive the firſt Part of the Inveſtiture: To this Tent the Prince came about Twelve o'Clock, eſcorted by a large Detachment of the Horſe Guards Blue, who were afterwards drawn up on either Side upon the Slope of the Hill before the Tent, others doing Duty on Foot. His Serene Highneſs was received by the Plenipotentiaries in the leſſer Tent, where the Habit and Enſigns had been previouſly laid on a Table, and he was immediately inveſted with the Surcoat and Sword. A Proceſſion was then made to the great Tent in the following Order.

Gentlemen and Officers of his Serene Highneſs.

Garter's Secretary carrying the Book of Statutes.

The Marquis of Granby's Secretary carrying the Hood.

Colonel Ligonier, Aid de Camp to his Serene Highneſs, carrying the Cap and Feather.

Colonel Fitzroy, Aid de Camp to his Serene Highneſs, carrying the Collar.

Cheſter Herald, in his Coat of Arms and Collar, carrying the King's Commiſſion.

Garter King of Arms, in his proper Mantle, carrying the Mantle of the Order on a Crimſon Velvet Cuſhion.

The Marquis of Granby, as firſt Plenipotentiary.

His Serene Highneſs the Prince, ſupported by the Lieutenant Generals Waldegrave and Moſtyn.

In this Manner they proceeded to the Great Tent, where two Chairs of State were placed, one for the Sovereign, having an Eſcutcheon of the Royal Arms and Titles over the Chair, the other for the Prince, having an Eſcutcheon of his Arms and Titles above his Chair. Upon entering the Tent, every Perſon made three Reverences to the Sovereign's State, and the Habit and Enſigns were ſeverally laid, by the Perſons who bore them, upon a Table before the Sovereign's Stall. The Prince ſat down in his Chair, the two Plenipotentiaries in Chairs on each Side of him; the Muſick playing. After a little Pauſe, the Marquis of Granby ſtanding up, made a ſhort Speech in French, which was anſwered by the Prince. Garter then preſented the King's Commiſſion, which was read by the Prince's Secretary. The Plenipotentiaries then inveſted his Highneſs with the Habit and Enſigns, viz. Firſt the Mantle, then the Hood, then the Collar, Garter pronouncing the uſual Admonitions. They then placed the Cap and Feather on the Prince's Head, and ſeated him in his Stall; the Muſick playing. Laſtly, Garter proclaimed the Sovereign's Stile in French, and then the Prince's; the Drums beating and Trumpets ſounding. This being done, a Proceſſion was made back to the leſſer Tent, in the ſame Manner as before, his Serene Highneſs having the Train of his Mantle borne by a Page. His Highneſs continued in this Tent about an Hour, till the Great Tent was prepared for Dinner, which was given by the Marquis of Granby, his Serene Highneſs ſetting at Table in the Habit of the Order, having his Cap held behind his Chair, the Plenepotentiaries on his right Hand, and the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick on his Left. The ſecond Courſe being ſerved up, his Serene Highneſs ſtood up, put on his Cap, and then taking it off, drank, 1ſt, The Sovereign's Health; 2d, The reſt of the

Royal

Royal Family; 3d, The Knights Companions of the Order: In Return whereof, the Marquis of Granby drank, 1ſt, The Health of the Prince; 2d, The reſt of his Family; 3d, The King of Pruſſia.

The next Day his Serene Highneſs gave an Entertainment in three Tents near the Head Quarters, at which were preſent (as at the former) all the Principal Officers of the Army. The Whole being conducted with as much Order and Splendour as the Circumſtances of a Camp would admit; and to the entire Satisfaction of his Serene Highneſs.
